FOUNDER & KEY STAKEHOLDERS

Anthony D Parfitt Chairman & CEO (Founder)

As an innovator, with Home Office accreditation spanning over 30 years, Anthony Parfitt has worked on improving safety systems for Network Rail and the Police. He has delivered large scale Government projects, with public safety at the heart of many of his inventions. After the tragic events at Grenfell Tower and his own household experience, Anthony saw an urgency to channel his expertise, in the first instance to domestic households, and then the commercial market.

Anthony has delivered life critical solutions to the following organisations:

UK Home Office

- The only UK Home Office approved Stingray ANPR system for the DVLA
- Mobile & static ANPR systems

Network Rail

- GateKeeper, level crossing enforcement solution & Mobile ANPR safety vehicles
- Advanced train tracking systems

DVLA

- National Security
- Home Office approved ANPR systems

The Police

- Mobile & static ANPR systems
- MDT (Mobile Data Terminal systems)

ALAN CARR MBE
CHIEF SUPPORT OFFICER

Alan has enjoyed a very successful career in the property industry and received an MBE for his work in the charity sector. Alan has first class UK & International contacts in business and politics, ideal for Ci™'s future funding and partnerships.

DANIEL FRENCH
CHIEF COMMERCIAL OFFICER

With an MSc in Construction Law, Daniel has vast experience working on commercial contracts within Construction, Power and Infrastructure sectors. Daniel brings extensive knowledge in procurement, negotiations and contract management, having previously worked on key projects across the UK and Europe, most recently as Head of Contracts & Risk Manager on the world's largest offshore wind farm, Hornsea 2.

CHRIS HOLLINS
CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Chris has over 25 years of experience in journalism including working on some of the UK's biggest TV shows, including BBC News, BBC Breakfast and Watchdog, and is now one of the most trusted journalists on British TV. He has his own production company which creates globally distributed shows and more recently has been working as a media consultant for sports governing bodies.
